

Guidelines for the IGA Board of Advisors

Objectives

- To provide opportunities to past board members and officers for continuous service and contribution to IGA
- To enlist valuable individuals with good standing to support IGA mission and activities

Nomination

- The president of IGA will nominate enthusiastic and qualified individuals
- The directors of the Board will approve the nomination by a simple majority

Term of Service

- The advisors will serve the same term as the president who nominates them

Chairing of the Board Meeting

- The president will chair the advisory board meeting
- The advisors can be invited to the Board of Directors meeting as non voting members

Responsibilities

- To advise the president of IGA on policy matter
- To undertake special assignments from the president

Recognition

- The names of the advisors will be printed in IGA publications and on the IGA web site
- Contribution and services will be recognized in the following International Conference on Goats

Proposed on February 24, 2005 at the Board of Directors Meeting in Paris

Approved on February 24, 2005 at the Board of Directors Meeting in Paris